

Pretzel Cheese Dogs

Don't Worry-
They're Kosher!

Vichna Belsky

Ingredients

1 pack 8 chicken hot dogs

(You can use beef, but it's not necessary for the taste in this recipe, and chicken is way more lean.)

DAIYA mozzarella shreds

(This fake cheese does not taste exactly like cheese, but it melts, and it's buttery in taste, so it works well in this recipe.)

1 frozen pizza dough, brought to room temperature

Egg or margarine & Kosher salt, if desired

Method

1. Bring a large pot of water to boil.
2. Divide dough into 8 pieces. Stretch into 8 long strips.
3. Slice each hot dogs to create 2 long pieces. Stuff with DAIYA cheese shreds.
4. Wrap one strip of dough in a spiral around each hot dog. To prevent the strip from unraveling, tuck the ends in well.
5. Place hot dogs in boiling water (not more than 2 at a time) for 30 seconds.
6. Place hot dogs on lined, greased cookie sheet.
7. If desired, brush top of dough with egg, margarine or oil, and sprinkle with Kosher salt.
8. Bake for 16-20 minutes, until done.

You can also make this without the DAIYA shreds for faster prep, with a bit of a different taste as well.
